

I Used to Have It All

Maverick Sabre

i remember how i use to feel things just seem so sweet now it don't and its so hard to seei remember how i use to be now its all just changed and i'm cold
in the gravefeels like it wont ever be the same
no no
now i'm alonebut i use to have it all
but now
i'm slipping
and i'm falling down
them days seem so close some how they're gone too far awaysee something just aint right see a government kill others for a wage - that's how we waste life i bleed
you bleed
we bleed together getting lost up in this system that teaches us to be separate easier to deal with us when we're split up in the sections as one
we're strong
hold on never let up
i'm fed up
living in this world where they tell us were nothing without money to show and to represent us but
fk our skin color cause we're still brothers and sisters don't let them tell you any different was so happy in this fiction but reallity is cold now we're so hard to live in but this prison is killing everything within us
but
i use to have it all

but now
i'm slipping and i'm falling down
now it's gone so far away
so far away yeahbut i use to have it all
but now
them days
seem so close
some how
they've gone too...but i use to have it all
but now
but somehow
