Shadowman

Afro Celts

Any time tomorrow I will lie and say I'm fine
I'll say yes when I mean no
And any time tomorrow the sun will cease to shine
There's a shadowman who told me soAny time tomorrow the rain will play a part
Of a play I used to know
Like no other used to know it all by heart
But a shadowman inside has let it goOh no, let go of my hand
Oh no, not now, I'm down, my friend
You came to me anew
Or was it me who came to you, shadowmanAny time tomorrow a part of me will die
And a new one will be born
Any time tomorrow I'll get sick of asking why
Sick of all the darkness I have wornAny time tomorrow I will try to do what's right
Making sense of all I can
Any time tomorrow I'll pretend to see the light
I just might, shadowmanOh, here's the sun again
Isn't it appealing to recline
Get blinded and to go into the light againDoesn't it make you sad
To see so much love denied
See nothing but a shadowman insideOh, if you're coming down to rescue me
Now would be perfect
Please, if you're coming down to rescue me
Now would be perfect
