Lady

The Whispers

LADYYou say you love me, lady
Girl, I hope you do
Only you can save me
My life equals youKiss me, drive me crazy
Would you do that for me, lady(Lady) you say you want my babies
Girl, if that's a fact (lady)
Then melt into me, lady
As though we were waxErase all my maybes
Would you do that for me, ladyOh, oh, your body's designed
By the wisdom of time
And I couldn't live without you
Without losing my mind, ohYou're the answer to my prayers
And just like fresh air
You keep me alive
You cannot be spared(Lady) I love you, oh, I love you
Said I love you, lady (lady)
And no power on this Earth
Can keep us apartYou're engraved in my heart
Do you hear me, pretty lady
Want you to hear what I'm saying
Yeah, yeahOoh, your body's designed
By the wisdom of time
And I couldn't live without you, girl
I'd be losing my mindYou're the answer to my prayers
And just like fresh air
You keep me alive
You cannot be spared
Don't you ever go nowhere(Lady) you see I love you, lady
Really, really love you, girl (lady)
And no power, no power, baby
Can keep us apartYou're engraved in my heart
Do you hear me, pretty lady
Do you hear me, baby(Lady) I want you to hear
Every word I say, yeah, girl
(Lady) woo woo woo...
That means I love you, baby
And that means that I want you, baby(Lady) scat singing (lady)
And that means that
I'm gonna get you, baby

Well, well, well, well, wellDon't you know I'm gonna love you, girl
Your kissing can drive me crazy
Yes, you do, girl(Kiss me) sweet love
Do anything that you want to do
(Lady) but don't you ever
Ever, ever, ever go nowherePlease, I don't want you
To go nowhere, baby
You see I love you, girl
