Your Woman

Sunshine Anderson

Before you came I thought every man was the same

Thinkin' to myself that it's a dog gone shame

Then when we first met I didn't quite know what to expect

But we've been together ever since and I have no regrets You mean so much to me

I'm so happy to be your woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your womanYou and me somehow connected spiritually Connected mentally, connected physically

And so I believe all the obstacles that we've

Encountered along the way makes us strong todayYou mean so much to me

I'm so happy to be your woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your womanMany days I feared I would end up all alone Never finding a love I can call my own

But then you came along and swept me off of my feat

And for the first time in my life I feel completeYou mean so much to me

I'm so happy to be your woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your womanYou mean so much to me I'm so happy to be your woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your womanYou mean so much to me
I'm so happy to be your woman
Love is so had to find
Which is why I'm thankful that I'm your woman
