All I Can Do

Jon B.

All I can do
Is lay back and smile
Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhileGirl, I love the way we talk so easy
Wanna toast to you
Take a minute of your time
To tell you the truth, babyUsed to never have a lose for words
My game is usually so tight
But you got me back on that high
Now, I'm coasting through my lifeTonight, we'll make it right
(Tonight we'll make it right)
All that I need is you
It's raining wet inside
(It's raining wet inside your body)
So what you wanna do?
(What you wanna do with me?)All I can do
Is lay back and smile
Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhileGirl, I'm diggin' on the way you're lovin'
It satisfies me
You just say the word
And I will give you all of meSee, I have never opened up this much
See, I've been praying 'cause I don't believe in good love
And I'm hoping you will see another way baby
And break a little here ladyTonight, we'll make it right
(Tonight, we'll make it right)
All that I need is you
It's raining wet inside
(It's raining wet inside your body)
So what you wanna do?
(So what you wanna do with me?)All I can do
Is lay back and smile
Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhileAll I can do
Is lay back and smile
Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhileSo what you wanna do?
What you wanna do?All I can do
Is lay back and smile

Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhileAll I can do
Is lay back and smile
Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhileAll I can do
Is lay back and smile
Just to celebrate being my lady
It's been awhile
