I Miss New Wave

Matthew Good Band

Going to fly to Hawaii, get laid in a lawn chair
Drown in a bathtub, fill it with cheap beer
I miss new wave and movies about losing
Or just the parts where it's a-okay
See baby, I got something right
The world is screaming
I miss new wave and real intent
Gonna drive to L.A., get laid at the rose bowl
Drown in a hot tub, fill it with models
I miss new wave and hearing the scratches
On my long plays or just the part that sound okay
See baby, I got something right
When the world is screaming
I miss new wave and real intent
Gonna die in Coquitlam, get laid by a golf course
That I never went to, well, it's not a real sport
And I'll miss new wave and watching you walk away
So go on, it's okay, see baby, I got something right
See baby, I got something right
