Now I Know

Jessica Andrews

Boy, I tried to write a letter I just need to make things better
And I'm praying that you'll let me work this out
I tried to call you on your phone and it seems you're not at home
This is something that we have to talk about
Here I am finally face to face, here's what I'm trying to sayWhat was I thinking baby? I should've seen the writing on the wall
Never thought you'd ever leave me now I know
What were you trying to tell me? I thought about everything you said
Ever since you walked away boy now I knowThere's no other way to say it baby, please, let's not delay it
Boy, I know you feel the same it's in your eyes
Since you've gone my heart's been missin' and I hope that you will listen
Boy without you I won't make it one more night
Take me back I was such a fool, I'm dying without youWhat was I thinking baby? I should've seen the writing on the wall
Never thought you'd ever leave me now I know
What were you trying to tell me? I thought about everything you said
Ever since you walked away boy now I knowI can't live my life without you everything you say wasn't true
I should have known it from the start now you own my heart
Now I know, now I know, doesn't matter what I do
I can't make it without youWhat was I thinking baby? Should've seen the writing on the wall
Never thought you'd ever leave me now I know
What were you trying to tell me? Thought about everything you said
Ever since you walked away boy now I knowWhat was I thinking baby? Should've seen the writing on the wall
Never thought you'd ever leave me now I know
What were you trying to tell me? Thought about everything you said
Ever since you walked away boy now I knowWhat was I thinking baby? Should've seen the writing on the wall
Never thought you'd ever leave me now I know
What were you trying to tell me? Thought about everything you said
Ever since you walked away boy now I know
