Hollow

Godsmack

One more step and I could fall away
If it happened would it matter?
And I can't tell if I should go or stay
Same old picture feels so hollowHow can anybody know what's best for me?
Another page I turn in shame
And my decisions brought me to my knees
I needed someone to blameI feel so hollow
I feel so hollow
Time to do what's best for me
I believe I can changeOnce upon a time in broken dreams
Reflections that I can't face
So hold your breath and make a wish for me
Take me to a better placeTime always seems to be passing by
It never waits for me
If I could do it all one more time
I wouldn't change a thingI feel so hollow
(Feel so hollow)
I feel so hollow
(Feel so hollow)I feel so hollow
(Feel so hollow)
I feel so hollow
(Feel so hollow)Time to do what's best for me
I believe I can change
