

Save My Love For A Rainy Day

The Temptations

Running away sure ain't gonna help you

Oh girl why won't you talk to me on the phone

Every time I call you disguise your voice

And tell me you're not at home

And girl this cold shoulder you're giving me

I don't understand

Could it be that you've already got yourself a man

If not

Running away sure ain't gonna help you

I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get now

Running away sure ain't gonna help you

I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get

Could it be, could it be

That you're afraid of me

If so I never recall giving you a reason

You know how much I love you

I've over exposed myself

My heart has so much joy

That there is room for no one else

Running away sure ain't gonna help you

I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get

Running away sure ain't gonna help you

I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get
