

Drowned In Wine

Family

After the turn
You finally learn to play along
Your feelings are blind
So you don't really mind if it's right or wrong
Fall in line
No, they won't let it stand on the back of their hand
Won't take a cave in the mine
You see what they've done
The end's just begun to filter in
The end is in sight
And the thought of a fight, now it's faltering
Yours and mine
They won't let it stand on the back of their hand
Won't take a cave in the mine
I could cry help
But I'd much sooner fend for myself
Don't wanna feel that I'm drowned in wine
Hate every thought of having to fall in line
Just want to grow, just want to grow and share what's yours and mine
As sure as I see they're looking at me with glasses on
And as sure as I feel I know they're for real, and the gas is on Well, I'm drowned in wine
No, they won't let it stand, no, no
Don't wanna feel that I'm drowned in wine
Hate every thought of having to fall in line
Just want to grow, grow and share what's yours and mine
After the turn
You've finally learned to play along
Your feelings are blind
And you don't really mind if it's right or wrong
I'm drowned, drowned in wine
No, they won't let it stand
No, they won't let it stand
I said they won't let it stand, no

Songwriters

ROGER CHAPMAN, JOHN WHITNEY

Published by

Lyrics © CARLIN AMERICA INC
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>