Idiot

Lisa Marie Presley

Please remember me forever
Believe in me as someone
Who's never gonna wish you well
I'm gonna tell you what I think about you
In that unforgivable way I do
You're an idiot and I hate your guts
I guess I'm about as happy for you
As I would be a cockroach in my food
I know it's terrible, I really hate you though
Do you have your fairytale life?
Or are you dancing to the white trash trash
Oh please remember me
Believe in me as someone
Who's never gonna wish you well
I heard the thing that you hate about me almost everyday
But you still wouldn't leave
I had to bullshit love ooh, I hated your guts
And I heard the opposite of love isn't hate
It's indifference but I can't relate
It's not good enough 'cause I hate your guts
Did you sell your mediocre mind?
You had to find out why you're better off with broader lines
Oh please remember me

Believe in me as someone
Who's never gonna wish you well
Oh please remember me
Believe in me as someone
Who wants you to go to hell
You're in me, you're boring
Oh, didn't you hear me snoring?
I don't mutilate myself when I talk to you
So tell me how did I hope you could tell
That I'm no one's pearl, you can have 'em, go to hell
You're gonna die on us, they're gonna hate your guts
Oh please remember me
Believe in me as someone
Who's never gonna wish you well
Oh please remember me

Believe in me as someone
Who wants you to go to hell
Oh please remember me
Believe in me as someone
Who's never gonna wish you well
Oh please remember me
Believe in me as someone
Who wants you to go to hell
