

Termination Bliss

Deathstars

Here she comes down, as her wings get nailed to the ground
- A polaroid of shame
The last angel's pathetic fame The face of deceit with nails in her feet
She's a preacher deprived from her voice
A punctured lung is creating noise The cry that she made was the cry of a dying child
The revocation of empathy
The sound from a million dreams and scars
Termination Bliss Blessed under a lie, Her last little weak "why?"
- The bloody end of a dream
Slit the throat and taste the cream
