

Mr. Fix It

Ub40

If you're feeling lonely
'Cause your one and only
Boy has found a girl
And gone away Just you reach for the phone
I'll be there at home
My name is Fix It
And I'll be there If your heart's been shattered
The pieces are scattered
All across the ground
Of loneliness Just you reach for the phone
I'll be there at home
My name is Fix It
And I'll be there Love is not a bed of roses
And life is not a game, it seems
If you're being mistreated by your lover
Then darlin', come see me And if you're feeling lonely
'Cause your one and only
Boy has found a girl
And gone away Just you reach for the phone
I'll be there at home
My name is Fix It
And I'll be there
I'll be there Love is not a bed of roses
And life is not a game, it seems
If you're being mistreated by your lover
Then darlin', come see me And if your heart's been shattered
The pieces are scattered
All across the ground
Of loneliness Just you reach for the phone
I'll be there at home
My name is Fix It
And I'll be there
I'll be there Because you used to fix it
Because you used to fix it
