

These Are the Days

Kelley Hunt

We all have heavy loads
We all have shoulders full with nothing left sometimes but the push and the pull
We all have news to face
We all have waters wide we gotta cross just to get to the other side but remember

These are the days
These are the days
These are the days
They're the best days of our lives

Rain could be coming down
The sun could be searing hot
The wind could be at your throat whispering everything you are not but but when you finally stop open your eyes wide you see what you've always know it's still there inside remember

These are the days
These are the days I said
These are the days
They're the best days of our lives

Don't you know i'm here for you
As you find your own way through you live what you need to know
With every step you take Don't you know what you tell yourself
Oh it's just a story
And when you breath it in
It is always enough
Always enough

We all have heavy loads
We all have shoulders full
With nothing left but the push and the pull
But remember I am here for you
And I believe in my heart

You are here for me too
Oh darling
These are the days
These are the days
The best days of our lives
I just want to remember
I want to remember this day for the rest of my life
