

The Beginning (intro)

Syleena Johnson

Once upon a time
There was a young soul filled with fears
She lacked love in herself
Which brought many many tears Until one day God sent her the challenge
That would change her life
A man, the fairest of them all
Dark and handsome, fit for a wife
He brought love to her mind
And he hypnotized her soul
