

Four Works of Art...

Owls

Four works of art - four works total - by which we can understand this historical period.

And these four works they're all about this same one thing seen from slightly different perspectives.

A car choked with trash, just filled completely with greasy paper bags and then cut open in cross-section.

The head of the CIA had to resign; had an affair with his own biographer.

And the head of Lockheed Martin had to resign; had an affair with a subordinate.

And oh I love that CCR song.

I think I'll sing along - CCR song!

CCR song!
