Saturday Night Special

The Runaways

Let's talk about women, let's talk about love
Let's talk about bitchin' and the comin' I've done
I live for the weekend, it's part of the script
You pray for an angel well, hey this is it
You can dress me in ribbons, you can tie me in knots
You get out the camera provocative shots
You do what you want to, let's see what you've got
And if I don't like it, I'll just tell you to stop
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
A two two caliber bore
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
You caught me dreamin' before
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
I'm young and easily bored
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
And you know I'm kinda special
And you know that you'll be back for more
You want to respect me how long will that last?
You want to protect me I don't need it you jerk
I'm lookin' for action, I'm hungry and hot
You want to know why that's easy why not
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
A two two caliber bore
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
I saved my acceptable score
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
I'm young and easily bored
She's a Saturday night special
(Saturday night)
And you know I'm kinda special
And I know that you'll be back for more
Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night

Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night
Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night
Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night
Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night
Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night
Yeah, yeah, yeah, Saturday night
