

Defenders of the Crown

Edguy

[L: Parcharidis / M: Parcharidis, Wolf, Marquardt] Templars of steel, Knights of the cross
Unite our armies to honour our God
Holy land, we are marching on
Ten thousand men, beneath the ashes of Jerusalem God sons ask for thyself to honour Jesus majesty
We shall return proud from the sea
Richard the Lionheart, the emperor of that century
Fought for the cross, for Christianity [PRE CHORUS]
We are there to fight - Defenders of the crown
With the legion of our God - We will conquer Ascalon
Even cities like Acre, Jaffa and Jerusalem
Cannot break us iron men - We're defenders of the crown We proudly sail across the seas
Muslim invaders bow down to your knees
With a great king upon our side
The Lionheart - This leadership will tear them all apart Richard the Lionheart took part in the third great crusade
Fought forces of mighty Saladin
Richard the Lionheart, the emperor of that century
Fought for England - For territory [CHORUS]
We are there to fight - Defenders of the crown
With the legion of our God and our military sound
Our forces will unite with our strength and might [BREAK]
Lionhearts men's blood paved the legend - Sacred quest Jerusalem For such a brave and noble man king Richards death come soon
An arrow strike brought forth his doom
Richard the Lionheart, the emperor of that century
Legendary buried in Fontvraud Abbey [CHORUS] [BREAK]
