Mindfield

Wartime

What's right? Who's wrong? Everybody takes sides
My God, your God, God it's such a fine line
E-mail, jump bail, man becomes a female
War wet, dragnet, take another PercocetSomewhere in between there's a world you've never seen
Perhaps it's just a dream but it's so real to me
Livin' in a minefield, we're walking on thin ice
Livin' in a minefield, there's no time to think twice
Only we can make it better, let's all get well togetherRock stars, pop stars, living in an ant farm
Smooth talkin', cool walkin', drownin' in your own charm
Mystic medicine, Maharishi let us in
Way out, weigh in, where the hell have you been?Somewhere in between there's a world you've never seen
Perhaps it's just a dream but it's so real to me
Livin' in a minefield, we're walking on thin ice
Livin' in a minefield, there's no time to think twice
Only we can make it better, let's all get well togetherEverything you do or say comes with a price that you must pay
I didn't know that yesterdayGood junk, bad funk, I can see through you
Peace, love, everyone be your own guru
Ha! Ha! Ha!Minefield, I'm walking on thin ice
Livin' in a minefield, there's no time to think twice
Minefield, we're walking on thin ice
Livin' in a minefield, there's no time to think twice
Minefield
Minefield
Minefield
Minefield
Minefield
