Too Many People

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

People are scared
And people don't know what it is
What they want, from this life?
They think they're right
They think they're great
They talk about themselvesThey run and run
They just don't know
They don't know what to do
They live their lives
Wasting time
They haven't got a clue
Too many people
(In this town)
So many people
(In this town)It's been ten years
Since anyone was here
Who might have told the truth
So they stay inside
Speak white lies
They haven't got a clue
Too many people
(In this town)
So many people
(In this town)It's a tragedy
You can't belive, what see
There is no honesty
So sad, for you and mePeople don't know when
People don't care
If they should know you
In this townThey stay inside
They pick, they fight
They talk abouth themselvesThey bitch'n and ignoring

Anyone who's talk
About their fucking shitIt work just as long
We all play along
Pretend we care about it
Too many people
(In this town)
So many people
(In this town)And it's a tragedy
Like it was for you and me
There's no integrity
So sad, i cannot breathe(Too many people)
(Too many people)
(Too many people)
