Pride

Sweetbox

Are you happy now
Are you better off
Are you a bigger man
Are you loving it, tell meYour last words echo on
Do they still feel good
Do they keep you warm
Do they ease the misery, the miseryYour pride, foolish pride
The battles won, was it worth it?
You're nobody's fool now
You're lonely but right
Your pride, foolish pride
The battles won, was it worth it?
You're nobody's fool now
You're lonely but rightDo they think you're strong? (do they think you're strong?)
Do they cheer on you?
Just because you've won the game
You put me in my place, my place
Was it worth it all? (was it worth it all?)
To just give it up
When I'd do anything for you, for you, for youYour pride, foolish pride
The battles won, was it worth it?
You're nobody's fool now
You're lonely but right
Your pride, foolish pride
The battles won, was it worth it?
You're nobody's fool now
You're lonely but rightHey look at you, you've got it all
Still walking tall, you never fall
The one eyed king of the blind (the one eyed king)
It must be sweet to never beg
It must be nice to never crawl
To be too good for it allYour pride, foolish pride
The battles won, was it worth it?
You're nobody's fool now (nobody's fool)
You're lonely but right (but your pride)
Your pride, foolish pride
The battles won, was it worth it?
You're nobody's fool now (nobody's fool)
You're lonely but right

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/