Humdrum Town

Charlie Sutton

Polaroid smiles and, nothing to lose, ribald boys in velcro shoes Bmx's, baseball cards, scattered all across the yard make the boys laugh and make the girls cry, hawk-a-loogie, tell a lie--in a... (Humdrum, ho hum, humdrum didle-ee-um, town)

Yo, yo strings all tied up in knots, pocket lint mismatched socks Cardboard forts to pass the time, shooting for the moon in a writrocket rhyme joker in the spokes, run a twig along a picket fence, riding skateboards in the rain candy cigarettes for a couple of cents, in a (Humdrum, ho hum, humdrum didle-ee-um, town)

Sewer hole snakes, salamanders in a crick, nathaniel could catch anything, slippery or slick Breaker marbles, got my elbows, recess bells a ringing, it's 12:30 make the boys laugh and make the girls cry, give a noogie, tell a lie--in a... (Humdrum, ho hum, humdrum didle-ee-um, town)
