The Creature Walks Among Us

Blitzkid

Four million years since he last roamed the earth,
Four million years since he was cradled in mud,
Four million years sleeping is hell on the soul,
Four million years feeling nature's due toll.(bridge)
He's waking
He's rising
And I will welcome him,
No one will ever know...(chorus)
The creature walks among us
Whoah-oh-oh (both lines x4)(bridge)
(chorus)
(outro)
