

Reach Out

Crystal Lewis

i've felt this way for a while like time is stealing my smile away like darkness holds the day i'm running at a break-neck pace as it in a race but what do i stand to win to cross the line again i'm too tired to sleep i need to find peace is this where my rest begins when i reach out to you reach out to you [there i find a hiding place] reach out to you [there i find a source of strength] reach out to you so busy i can barely breathe temptation seems to keep me off my knees yet that is where i want to be i'm sitting in the shallow end a pool of good intent distraction has my feet it pulls me underneath now it's sink or swim throw the life line in God show me what i should do when i reach out to you reach out to you [there i find a joy divine] reach out to you [there i find a peace of mind] reach out to you reach out to you
reach out to you i have failed and yet still you give, i get i remain amazed at that
