Heaven Knows

Squeeze

You're no dame, I'm no duke
Somehow love is a fluke
We've survived thick and thin
Taking knocks on the chinIn the eyes of the sad
We may be barking mad
But the truth has been ceased
We are like chalk and cheeseYou wind me up and I drive you mad
It's a fact of life, it goes hand in hand
And I know that look, it's read like a book
And I realizeI don't care what the world has to say
You should know that I love you
I love you
I love you todayI don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in love
I don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows thatWhen the boat starts to rock
Then my ears start to block
All the words that you say
Through the night, through the dayWhere there's muck there is brass
And the storm soon will pass
Then it's back to the norm
All the cold turns to warmSometimes I think life crawls like a snail
And all of our dreams become the wind in your sails
Without wealth it's true, who cares what you do
And I realizeI don't care what the world has to say
You should know that I love you
I love you
I love you todayI don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in love
I don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in loveI can feel the eyes behind us as we walk
I can see the ears that listen when we talkI don't care what the world has to say
You should know that I love you
I love you
I love you todayI don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in love
I don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in loveI don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in love

I don't care what the world has to say
Heaven knows that I'm in love
