

Only You Make Me Happy

Krystal Meyers

I was chasing my dreams
With a coke and a smile
Only You make me happy
If that was the real thing
Then I'm in denial
Only You make me happy
Now my heart's on my sleeve
Don't care if I'm not in style
Only You make me happy
Superficial, fake and fleeting
Fashion statements have no meaning
Only You make me happy
Only You make me happy
Everything will change
But You remain the same
Only You make me happy
I had it under control
I had it right where it wants me
Only You make me happy
I've got the rock and the roll
It made me one of the posse
Only You make me happy
Fame and fortune, blind ambition
Can't replace the love You've given
Like a song in my head
It lives and it dies
(Only You make me happy)
Elvis is dead, but my King is alive
Only You make me happy
Only You make me happy
Everything can go
'Cause the one thing I know
Is only You make me happy
