Mouth Of Voodoo

Skid Row

You're testing my patience
I've got nothing but time
You'll never break down the wasll in my mind
When I truly test your threshold of pain
Your fetishes are nothing more than a game
Let me be in you ceremony
Burn me in your ritual
I can rise with you below me
We'll walk in time as we fall into the mouth of voodoo

And I'm sure the sun won't mind
Then we can shine, shine, shine
Then we can shine, shine, shine
Your love is so blinding
My lust is a curse
It's painful to wonder but waiting is worse
You're sticking your pins now
It's taking its toll
Crush and obsession leave scars on your soul
