

Disappearing Act

Shalamar

I never should have let you win my heart

And that's a fact

'Cause you gave me your love

Followed by a disappearing act

An illusion of love

That's all you were right from the start

The promises in the dark

Are a matter of you just playing

Your magic touch nearly knocked me out

But like Houdini, you were gone when I came around

Oh baby

I never should have let you win my heart

And that's a fact

'Cause you gave me your love

Followed by a disappearing act

Well I've got my self to blame

I should have known

When to come in out of the rain

You led me to believe

That our need for love was one and the same

Hook, line and sinker, I bought your act

You had me too involved before I knew of the plan

Your ways they left me mesmerised

You fed me lies and I swallowed every line

Oh baby

I never should have let you win my heart

And that's a fact

'Cause you have me your love

Followed by a disappearing act

I've got to find the part of my soul that you attract

What keeps me around trying to solve your disappearing act

'Cause your love puts my head in the clouds

Once you're sure that my life is in a tailspin

Then you're gone like the wind

Baby yeah

Disappearing act

Disappearing act

I've got to find the part of soul that you attract
What keeps me around trying to solve your disappearing act

I never should have let you win my heart

And that's a fact

'Cause you gave me your love

Followed by a disappearing act

'Cause you're gone

A ha

Gone like the wind

Disappearing act

Disappearing act

Disappearing act

Disappearing act

Disappearing act
