Animals

Cocorosie

Now that I'm alone I feel the lonely brokeness
Of all the wicked avenues I've ever sold my love on All these moments of meekness and trembling subsided
In the outright abandon of this orphan child.
Home is on the highway living on soft bread and solace,
I guess I'm waiting for nightfall or a solar eclipse
And to wake up half empty
Only to be filled again with mourning
He's my evil shadow dove
My black Palamito
Can't break him like a diamond skull
I can't seem to do so I Can't just rub him out like the Mob used to do so
Like memories of porno and tea stains
And tobacco, Oh, it's a mini disastro
Bigger than the ice age don't know if baby dinosaurs
Maybe could live through it, or Indians and butterflies
What's crushed is my spirit, Oh I fear it is too fragile,
Like fall leaves burn like paper...
I always knew I would spend a lot of time alone
No one would understand me,
Maybe I should go and live amongst the animals..
Spend all my time amongst the animals
And on the tracks I would go they lead to the sea
To be amongst the animals...

Oh I'm just a fall leaf something simple and shy lie that,
That's how my heart lies down beside the sidewalk
Like an empty restaurant filled with perfume and balloons,
I sit and entertain the bizarre ghosts of my soul
His name still lingers maybe lactates on my tongue
Perhaps I'm just teething for a foreign fallen destiny
Miserable but mine, I look like his mother
Or Sophia Loren in an old fashioned movie
Slow motion I cling to my child, desperate for love
One day soon my brother died, made me remember all the Subordinate feelings I cast aside and maybe I had lied when I said I was ok

Just getting along like a little song that stops to sing and say
"Wild willow, windy winter won't you blow through me
My whole eternity"
Now I always knew that i would spend alot of time alone...
nooone would understand me maybe i should go and live amongst the animals...
spend all my time amongst the animals...
And on the tracks I would go they lead to the sea
To be amongst the animals...
Now I always knew that i would spend alot of time alone...
noone would understand me maybe i should go and live amongst the animals...
spend all my time amongst the animals...
And on the tracks I would go they lead to the sea
To be amongst the animals...

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/