

Been There Done That

Neil Sedaka

You're gonna wail, weep, and moan, suffer to the bones
Without my love you'll just disintegrate
You won't make it without me; you'll live in misery
You're gonna miss my lovin', just you wait When you come crawlin' on the floor, I won't want you any more
Now it's my time to shout and celebrate
You'll suffer, wait and see; you'll never find someone like me
And now your tears are comin' much too late Been there, done that; I had enough
Just pack your stuff and leave
Been there, done that; why did you lie?
And now it's your turn to cry You're gonna wail, weep, and moan, suffer to the bones
You'll never find a guy as good as me
You treated me so bad; now I'm feelin' oh-so glad
I'm gonna change that stupid lock and key Been there, done that; find someone else
Who'll treat you like you treated me
I never thought that revenge could be so sweet
I'll be cheerin' from a front row seat You're gonna wail, weep, and moan, suffer to the bones
Without my love you'll just disintegrate
You won't make it without me; you'll live in misery
You're gonna miss my lovin', just you wait When you come crawlin' on the floor, I won't want you any more
Now it's my time to shout and celebrate
You'll suffer, wait and see; you'll never find someone like me
And now your tears are comin' much too late Been there, done that; I had enough
Just pack your stuff and leave
Been there, done that; why did you lie?
And now it's your turn to cry Been there, done that; find someone else
Who'll treat you like you treated me
I never thought that revenge could be so sweet
I'll be cheerin' from a front row seat
I'll be cheerin' from a front row seat
I'll be cheerin' from a front row seat
Been there, done that, yeah
