

Let the World Go By

Karl Blau

some days are just lonely days some days it just rains
some days are just lonely days
and they don't bring nothing but pain and in those times, you know how I find it just don't pay to cry just lie in the shade and drink and let the world go by some nights are just lonely nights some nights there's no moon
some nights are just lonely nights when you're there all alone and when they call, you just be strong and push your window wide and listen to the wind in the trees
and let the world go by
that is not for good you know and no man owns the sun no man's life has ended until his living is done
some days are just lonely days
