

Exuma's Reincarnation

Baha Men

I

I've been waiting a long time
For someone to discover me

Why, you ask?

It's because I am getting
A little claustrophobic in here

I see how you get ideas
About how I really came to be

Well I guess

I can see

How you think

I am mean

Golden green

All machine

'Cause it's me

I've been stuck here

All alone

No one to tell the

Things I know

Well I guess

I can see

How you think

I am mean

Golden green

All machine

'Cause it's me

You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped

You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped

You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped

You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped

Well deserved

I paid the consequence and

I have learned

That I'm twisted

But it still hurts

Why do they get to go
And why do I have to stay?
They moved on
But I am stuck in here
Well they're not wrong
But I'm asking for some
Peace of mind
If I could rewind
I would never come back
To the place at the time
This is it
The big finale
But they never quit
They were out to get me
What I did
Is unforgettable
And I will pay the price
Golden suits
Are now my curse
So now I walk towards you
Can you get me out of
All my troubles and
All my past mistakes
All the sadness
Please all of the hate
I see how you get ideas
About how I really came to be
Well I guess
I can see
How you think
I am mean
Golden green
All machine
'Cause it's me
You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped
You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped
You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped
You are never going back
'Cause you got springtrapped
I guess I'm all alone
And I
Don't think I move on

I'm forever stuck in gold
To live the life
Of an animatronic
Fright attraction
Someone please
Prove me wrong
This is it
The big finale
But they never quit
They were out to get me
What I did
Is unforgettable
And I will pay the price
Golden suits
Are now my curse
So now I walk towards you
Can you get me out of
All my troubles and
All my past mistakes
All the sadness
And all of the hate
