

Novices

C Duncan

It's so unstoppable,
It seems so new.
But since we're still just novices,
I feel it too.
It's so retainable,
It seems so lewd.
But since you came and spoke to me, misunderstood. We know in days gone by,
Under wheels.
We know in ways gone by,
Something real. It's so unstoppable,
I know its charms.
But since we're still just innocents,
In waiting arms.
It's so disdainable, but still,
We know it's true.
And since they came and broke our hearts,
I feel it too. We know in days gone by,
Under wheels.
We know in ways gone by,
Something real.
