

Aware of My Despair

Lararium

My demons are calling
A voice from inside
These claws have torn apart
Every inch of my mind
A casket laid aside
A place for my sanity to reside

These echoes are not the words I speak
Listen closer, find what's buried beneath

They speak as though I'm not here
Controlling me to hate and spread fear
They've planted seeds of doubt
Begging to be let out

Tick tock
My thoughts beat to the clock
