

Forgive Me, Dear

Faron Young

I lost your love and started drinkin cryin hard to stop from thinkin I found that it was not the thing to do I cant stop my heart from throbbin Couldnt ease the pain my sobbin Forgive me dear If Ill always do whats right its my fault my heart is broken angry words we have spoken Im so sorry for now ive seen the light
I only hope that you still love me cuz ill swear by stars above me forgive me dear I will always do whats right Now i see was mistaken and my heart is slowly breaking now I know i was wrong from the start lets renewe our old romance dear Please just give me one chance now Forgive me dear and I will do whats right.
Its my fault my heart is broken angry words that we have spoken Im so sorry for now I have seen the light
I only hope that you still love me cuz I swear by stars above me Forgive me dear I will always do whats right
End
