All the Days (Aritzia Vignette)

Haerts

Time has come
And some gone
Memory fadedLines are lost
Neon frost
On the sunsetGolden things
We drew our names
In the waterNow you're gone
A love gone wrong
But I'll make it
All the days we had together
All the days we had togetherYou can teach
A heart to reach
Out to anotherLeaving me
Would leave me free
To reach above nowAll the days we had together
All the days we had together
All the days we had together
All the days we had togetherOh and when the light is lost the night will follow
Our memory falls into the sun
And when the night is lost the light will follow
Our memory cannot take us back
All the days we had together
All the days we had together
All the days we had together
All the days we had together
