Blinding My Eyes

Seventh Wonder

Sunrise blinding my eyes
Riding on the windDown, down, down
Oppression is holding us down
Tied to the ground
Shackled and chained we are boundSee how you've broken
The will of all these men
The spirits are choking
But hope will always remainSunrise blinding my eyes
Riding on the wind
I'm sick of this, sick of this fighting
Life like animalsPound, pound, pound
Grinding them into the ground
Keeping them blind
In darkness ever confinedRevel in terror
Revel in pain
Our spirits are choking
But hope will never refrainSunrise blinding my eyes
Riding on the wind
I'm sick of this, sick of this fighting
Life like animalsDie, die, die
The forgers of this evil lie
The yoke cast aside
Breaking the chains Freedom cryNo we are rising, reach for the skySunrise kissing my eyes
Riding on the wind
I'm free from this, free from this fighting
Free like animals
Beauty reflecting the sunlight
Mountains crowned with snow
I marvel at valleys in bloom
Stand in awe of mother earth
