Cost of Everyone

Eight

Even after all this time
When the faces blend and/to look like mine
I can't believe we've come this far alone
(I'm) talking to myself again
Cos I'm the only one I can't offend
I still believe its time to go aloneIt's the cost of everyone
To believe in someone
It's the cost of everyone aloneEven after all this time
When the faces (blend and) look like mine
(I'm) talking to myself again, alone
