

You Can't Have My Heart

Joe Cocker

You can keep that diamond ring
Take it down town and find out what it will bring
You can ask me to give you almost anything, oh yeah
All except my heart You can't have my heart, I'm takin' that with me
Somebody else might want it
You broke it almost constantly
So you can't have my heart I will not be true to you
I won't wait till you decide what you're gonna do
You may change your mind but it's too late this time
So give me back my heart You can't have my heart, I'm takin' that with me
Somebody else might want it
You broke it way too frequently
Now you can't have my heart I'm takin' that with me
Somebody else might want it
You broke it almost constantly
So you can't have my heart I don't care any more
Why you act the way you do?
I won't be there anymore
I won't even be thinking about you I'll take the future, baby
You can have the rest, okay
All except my heart You can't have my heart, I'll take that with me
You really didn't want it
You broke it almost constantly
Now you can't have my heart I'll take that with me
Somebody else might want it
You broke it almost constantly
So you can't have my heart You can't have my heart
You can't have my heart
You can't have my heart, oh no
You can't have my heart
