

The Course Of Human Life

The Early November

It caught us by surprise
It always waits until the timing is right
Till we're sure enough we can be safe
Well here's a surprise for my fate
You know I'm gonna give up
And you know who I date And we've come so far on useless space
Out of everyone everywhere,
We can say we've found our own way So you like to say surprise
I know you always wait
Till you find a way to buy some time
But plans always kept you away
But now you're finally here
And I was just gonna go on my own
I didn't even catch your name
Take a seat, make yourself at home We've come so far on useless space
Out of everyone everywhere,
We can say we've found our own way
