

Heaven Knows

Noel Gourdin

Where did we go wrong? Listen girl
Where did we go wrong in this love affair? Mmmm
Too late to turn around , whoaaaaaa
No need to remind me there
' Cause we both lied and we cheated
I still care please believe me
I pray to God that we'll make it
Like Adam and Eve we'll both make it
I'll hold on we can take it
Through the storm and the rain
And i won't let go no, no blaming
Whatever you want you just name it
Only Heaven knows , how much i love you
(i need you , i need you)
Only heaven knows , how much i love you
' Cause i don't want nobody else
Yeaaaah listen girl
Close the door , we got some skeletons in there
Yes we dooooo
No more going to our past
' Cause we have a present in the future
Ohhhhhh , even though our house is made of glass
' Cause we both lied and we cheated
I still care believe me
I pray to God that we'll make it
Like Adam and Eve we'll both make it
i won't let go no, no blaming
Whatever you want you just name it
Only heaven knows how much i love you
(can i get a witness who's in love just like me?)
Only heaven knows (heaven knows) how much i love you
(I need a love healing) Listen to me
We've got nosey friends and in-law haters
Running our life, don't wanna think twice about our relationship
I'm forever with you But lets get over this point
My life will pursue
I want you we're not through (whoaaaaaa)
Only heaven knows , how much i love you
(how much i want you)

Only heaven knows how much i love
We gonna go to church on Sunday morning, baby
We gonna sing and listen to the word (yeaaah)
Only heaven knows, how much i love you (x2)
