

Under an Open Heaven

Wess Morgan

I AM UNDER AN OPEN HEAVEN I am under an open heavens
the favor of God is raining on me
What the Lord has released to me
No man has ever seen I am under an open heavens
the favor of God is raining on me
What the Lord has released to me
No man has ever seen I prayed and I fasted I'm in the season of destiny I am under an open heavens
the favor of God is raining on me
What the Lord has released to me
No man has ever seen I am under an open heavens
the favor of God is raining on me
What the Lord has released to me
No man has ever seen I prayed and I fasted I'm in the season of destiny
Eyes have not seen (eyes haven't heard) nor things heard
The good things that God has in-stored I'm in the season of blessings. I am under an open heavens
the favor of God is raining on me
What the Lord has released to me
No man has ever seen I am under an open heavens
the favor of God is raining on me
What the Lord has released to me
No man has ever seen I prayed and I fasted I'm in the season of destiny
Eyes have not seen (eyes haven't heard) nor things heard
The good things that God has in-stored
I'm in the season of blessings I've been waiting on this right here
