Trains and Tracks

An Horse

The tick-tock tick-tock of my heart but miss the tick-tock tick-tock on the clock What happens when the battery runs out?The click-clack click-clack of my brain but miss the click-clack click-clack of the train but What happens when the tracks all gone?Oh my god, I tick-tock for you
Oh my god, I tick-tock for youbut you never come true
Cause what would I do?
no you never come true
what would I do?I shout it out, I'll shout it out The batteries dead and the tracks run out (batteries dead and the tracks run out)Now it's a mini tragedy and I mistake sentimentalities with my memories, with my memoriesCause look at these walls (look at these walls) Just look at these walls (look at these walls) there's no brain and there's no heart at allOh my god, I tick-tock for you
Oh my god, I tick-tock for youbut you never come true
Cause what would I do?
no you never come true
what would I do?I shout it out, I'll shout it out
The batteries dead and the tracks run out (batteries dead and the tracks run out)
I'll shout it out, I'll shout it out
The batteries dead and the tracks burnt out (batteries dead and the tracks burnt out)Oh my god, I tick-tock for you
Oh my god, I tick-tock for youbut you'll never come true Cause what would I do?
no you'll never come true
I gotta find something to hold onto
