Camouflage

Biohazard

Camouflage you close your eyes, hiding in plain sight
Wrapped tightly in blankets of lies, live whatever life you synthesize
Disguise the truth about yourself, bury it six feet deep
Bring to life your deceit and stealth, lock the door and throw away the keyHide behind your lies, I see through your disguise
It leads to your demise, I see it in your eyesDisarray your life slips into, falling apart at the seams
You can't understand what's goin' on, who you once were is forever gone
On and on the tangled web you weave, runnin' from your past
You listen to whatever you want to believe
Too late karma comes around to you so fastHide behind your lies, I see through your disguise
It leads to your demise, I see it in your eyesHide behind your lies, I see through your disguise
It leads to your demise, it's in your fuckin' eyes, motherfuckerAll you do is lie, cheat, deceive
Everyone you hate, need, believe
All you do is lie, cheat, deceive
Everyone you hate, need, believe
All you do is lieFlippin' around the truth, you're slippin'
Tighten the noose around your neck is rippin'
Anything you wish, take a pen and script in Manufacture the truth all you do is lieAll you do is lie, cheat, deceive
Everyone you hate, need, believe
All you do is lie, cheat, deceive
Everyone you hate, need, believe
All you do is lie
