Letting Go

Nikki Leonti

Fire all around
My face to the ground
Crying for a voice to be heard
Are you gonna make a way
Do I really hear You saying to me
Come lay it all downCHORUS:
Now I'm letting go
Giving it back to You
I'm placing my life in Your hands
The day that You took over
Was the day my life began
I'm starting over againSurely heaven knows the beauty of Your plan
How You saved the human soul from despair
How you make the sun to rise
Even after all these nights
Your love was still thereCHORUSBRIDGE:
And I don't even know where I would be without Your love
'Cause only love could bring me here to You
So take this life I've known and make it Yours alone
I'm letting go, letting goCHORUS
