Outcome

Aber. INC

A while ago
A little shy boy
Tried to eat a feather
He puked and stuf
Didn't liked that so much
He amused himself with anger

All and all
was all he sang
Even in shiny weather
His friends never understood him
But they trusted him in is anger

You didn't knew him
You never saw him
You never knew who he was
Until he did you
Now he's gone
He ran away
His life ended
In time with your dismay

Nanananana he is gone
Nanananana he is gone

He ran away
He ran away
He ran away
