Invisible

The Blank Theory

(We can all just disappear)Some days I'm (watching it all)
From the outside looking in
And the world is shrinking
(Picking apart) whatever skin is left on me
(Wondering what) it is I have to do
(Wondering what) it is I have to lose
(Every day) they try to take another piece of my mindBut tonight we're invisible to the world
(We can all just disappear)
And tonight we're untraceable
We're invisible
(We can all just disappear)Some days I'm (losing it all)
By the moment I awake
And there are voices telling me
(Try to ignore) the face's eyes crawling all over us
(Wondering why) they just can't let it go
(Wondering why) they can't leave me alone
(Every day) they try to take another piece of my mindBut tonight we're invisible to the world
(We can all just disappear)
And tonight we're untraceable
And now it's possible
(We can all just disappear)
(We can all just disappear)You can't take this life away from me
You can't take away this piece of my mindBut tonight we're invisible to the world
(We can all just disappear)
And tonight we're untraceable
And now it's possible
(We can all just disappear)
Tonight is beautiful
Tonight is beautiful
