Hole In the Sky

David Coverdale

(coverdale)Everyday I'm more confused...
In my life, you're all I know
Laid your love before me
I thought you knock me down,
You had me screaming for more...There's a hole in the sky,
Don't tell me you're sorry - who cares
There's a tear in my eye,
Don't you tell me you're sorry - who cares...Used to be cool but I ain't no more,
When you told me it was gone...
Always playing love songs alone
Without you near,
I'll never make it on my own...There's a hole in the sky,
Don't tell me you're sorry - who cares
There's a tear in my eye,
Don't you tell me you're sorry - who cares...Now everytime I wanna hold you
You keep your love away from me...
Now I can feel it an' I need it close to me
If you really want me, baby if you really care,
You've got to stay right by my side,
You've got to stay right by my side...Cause I need you baby...
