

Back Seat (Gettin' Down)

Brian McKnight

Oh, baby hey
Hey MommaIt's only 3, your plane lands at 8
Girl it's been so long, I can't hardly wait
Girl it's you I crave and can't wait to see you baby
I can't work no more, can't concentrate
When your lips meet mine I won't hesitate
Girl it's you I want, I've been missing you babySo by the time I have you close to me
No more livin' in a fantasy
I'll be right where I'm supposed to be
Baby we just might beIn the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' downNothing much to do for the next 3 days
Thank God it's Friday night and Monday's a holiday
Got my mind on you, I've been jonesin for you baby
Let's drive up the coast, let's leave L.A.
Find us a cozy spot, what about Monterey?
I can have all of you, all to myself now babyBut by the time I have you close to me
No more livin' in a fantasy
I'll be right where I'm supposed to be
Baby we just might beIn the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' downMissing you, wanting you, needing you, touching you
Squeezing you, dreaming you, teasing you, pleasing you
Breathing you, eating you, sleeping you, tasting you
Can't wait babyBy the time I have you close to me
No more livin' in a fantasy
I'll be right where I'm supposed to be
Baby we just might beIn the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' down
In the backseat gettin' downLet's get down
Let's get down
