

Where Did It Go?

Asking Alexandria

[Verse 1]

So you're all stars now?
So you're what's "in" now?
Top of the world now
So you're the kings now?
There is only one throne and I'm not done with it
Still shitting, sleeping, eating, breathing it
Ten years and you're still hanging on
My every word with baited breath
After a decade pushing boundaries
Proving impossible, possible
Making something from nothing
Creating "larger than life"
Always rejecting the herd
Always ahead of the curve
Writing the records your favorite band rips off in their records

[Chorus]

You're all so fucking outrageous
I can't take it
Motherfuckers more than a little complacent
Where did it go?
Where did it go so wrong?
Just sit the fuck down, pay attention
There's too much noise, for a second listen
Where did it go?
Where did it go so wrong?

[Verse 2]

There was a first one
A triple gold one
The stole by every fucking band on summer tours one
Then the second one
The living reckless one
The knock the popstars off the charts one
And the third one, the fuck the world one
The arenas singing every fucking word one
Then the fourth one
The wasn't me one
The "we needed just a little space to breathe" one
But now there's this one

The I'm the king one
The I don't care, I'm gonna do my thing one
The breaking every fucking rule in the book one
The fuck you all[Chorus]
This shit is fucking outrageous
I can't take it
Motherfuckers more than a little complacent
Where did it go?
Where did it go so wrong?
Just sit the fuck down, pay attention
There's too much noise, for a second listen
Where did it go?
Where did it go so wrong?[Bridge]
Don't have to like it but you can't deny you needed me
To show you what comes next, what comes next
I've set the standard far too high for you to follow me
Feel free to try your best, try your best[Chorus]
You're all so fucking outrageous
I can't take it
Motherfuckers more than a little complacent
Where did it go?
Where did it go so wrong?
Just sit the fuck down, pay attention
There's too much noise, for a second listen
Where did it go?
Where did it go so wrong?
